

Addresses Will No Longer Be Printed on Most Licenses

The Bureau of Health Professions will no longer print the address on most health professional licenses. The address will continue to be printed on educational limited, clinical academic, and location specific Pharmacy licenses. In addition, we will continue to print the address on the wallet card.